

CALL FOR PAPERS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Society for the ANTHROPOLOGY OF CONSCIOUSNESS

The Society for the Anthropology of Consciousness will hold its annual conference in Phoenix, Arizona from April 6-10, 1994. The Society for the Anthropology of Consciousness (SAC) is a unit of the American Anthropological Association. Its mission includes a interdisciplinary study of human consciousness and its manifestations. Specific interests of SAC and the conference include (altered) states of consciousness, shamanism, possession, mediumship, mysticism, indigenous healing practices, and linguistic, philosophical and symbolic studies of consciousness.

Invited Themes for the 1994 conference include:

- * Animal Consciousness
- * Ontogenetic and Phylogenetic Evolution of Consciousness
- * Variation in Human Consciousness
- * Conceptual Models of Consciousness
- * Non-Western Concepts of Consciousness
- * Language and Consciousness
- * Ethnobotanical Agents and Consciousness

The conference coordinators solicit individual papers, organized panels and sessions, and workshops on topics in the anthropological and interdisciplinary study of consciousness. Proposal and registration forms are available from Conference Coordinator David Jacobs, Anthropology, Arizona State University, Tempe, Az. 85287-2402 Tel. (602) 965-6213.
